Re: Huang v. WCJ Seafood Restaurant, et al.
Case No.: 1:14-cv-00653(VEC)

Dear Judge Caproni:

This Firm formerly represented Plaintiff Wen Bin Huang (“Huang” or the “Plaintiff”) in the above captioned action. The undersigned respectfully requests an adjournment to the hearing scheduled for tomorrow, November 27, 2018. The adjournment is requested due to an unforeseen family medical emergency. I spoke to opposing counsel, Heng Wang Esq., and he is consenting to this adjournment. Due to the emergency nature of this adjournment request, the parties will continue to confer regarding a future date that will work for both sides.

Thank you for your time and attention. Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if you have any questions.

Dear Judge Caproni,

I am filing this letter as a courtesy to Wong & Wong.

Today I learned from my adversary Antony Lembersky that a family member of his was admitted to the hospital due to a serious medical condition.

In light of this, I consented to his request for an adjournment. I was then contacted by Wong & Wong saying that Mr. Lembersky is currently in the hospital with that family member, and was not able to file this letter. As such, I agreed to file this letter with the Court. Mr. Lembersky indicated that he would not be able to handle the hearing tomorrow. As such, unless otherwise instructed by the Court, I will not bring the witness to the Court tomorrow. I will call the Court tomorrow morning to follow up the status of this request. Thank you! - Heng Wang

Respectfully submitted,
Wong, Wong & Associates, P.C.
